

ROTARY DISTRICT 1130.

ROTARY IN LONDON.

REMEMBRANCE SUNDAY PARADE.

We have now received tickets for a Rotary contingent to take part in the above Ceremony. Last year a small group took part and all participants found the experience to be a moving one. Participants may be anyone and I invite Rotarians and their spouses to make contact with me – PREFERABLY BY EMAIL – for tickets on a first come first served basis. Dress is civilian clothes – ex service personnel may wear medals. A Rotary wreath will be laid.

Rotary takes part in local Remembrance Day events across the country and this is a central focus opportunity for Rotary to be represented. I do hope there will be significant interest from members at no financial cost to anyone.

I appreciate that this event clashes with the Rotary Institute, so some people will be unable to take part.

If you would like to take part, please email names to me as soon as possible. If anyone has a particular war memory I would welcome details as the BBC is always looking to interview people with a relevant story to tell.

The Parade is on Sunday, 13th November 2005.
Assembly between 9.15 and 10.00 a.m. in Whitehall.
Dispersal at about 12.30 p.m.

Yours in Rotary,

IPDG Colin Bryant.
