

To clubs in the North West, North and West areas.

Rotary Club of Hampstead:

Presents. An afternoon with Agatha Christie featuring “The Patient” – a play reading by professional actors. (Directed by Sam Snape.)

Mathew Prichard (Agatha Christie’s grandson who will lead a panel discussion
“was Agatha Christie more effective on the page – or the stage?”

Plus a workshop on the stage craft of Agatha Christie.

In aid of Hampstead Rotary Supported Charities.

A MUST SEE FOR ALL AGATHA CHRISTIE AFICIONADOS.

Venue: Hampstead Town Hall, 213 Haverstock Hill, London NW3 4QP

Tickets: £15.00 per ticket.

Ticket applications through Roiter Zucker, 5/7 Broadhurst Gardens, Swiss Cottage, London NW6 3RZ. (020 7328 9111)

ON SATURDAY 4TH FEBRUARY 2006. STARTS 3.00 PM. DOORS OPEN 2:30 PM.